

HERALD CAMERA-MEN TELL THEIR STORY

Boy's Slayers Dare Death Sentence

(By Pacific & Atlantic)
In surprise move slayers of Robert Franks, son of Chicago millionaire, pleaded guilty to murder in Chicago court. The slain boy's father, Jacob Franks, is one of the principal witnesses. (Left to right) Attorney Bachrach, Leopold, Balliff and Loeb.

Another Titled Romance

(By Pacific & Atlantic)
Earl of Galloway and Miss Philippa Wendell of New York have announced their engagement. Couple (above) at home of bride's mother in England.

J. D.'s Double

(By Pacific & Atlantic)
Not only is John Locke (above), Los Angeles, Cal., waiter, a splendid double to John D. Rockefeller, but he also buys the gas monarch's second-hand wigs and wears them. Locke is shown wearing one of J. D.'s headpieces.

Forest Fire's Path

Raging Idaho forest fire destroyed Naboo mine, near Kellogg. In night and smoke relief workers fought to save miners. Many were made homeless.

Movie Star Wants Husband Under Bond

(By Pacific & Atlantic)
After Alexander Pantages and Ben Rosenberg were beaten by John C. Howard, husband of Ora Carewe, movie star, in Hollywood, Cal., she asked that husband be placed under peace bond. (Left to right) Ora, District Attorney Keyes and Evelyn, her sister.

Speaks Not

Maharani of Jind, who arrived in New York on the Leviathan, is not allowed to speak without her husband's permission.

Stranger Than Fiction

(By Pacific & Atlantic)
After Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Hinton of Atlanta buried boy killed in train wreck who they thought was son, real son, John, appeared in scene. A happy group they made.

Prettiest

(By Pacific & Atlantic)
When Senorita Maria-Louisa Canovas (above) was presented at Spanish court function, Queen of Italy said she was the prettiest girl she had ever seen.

League Pays Tribute to Woodrow Wilson

In memory of Woodrow Wilson, founder of the League of Nations, this placard was placed on wall of League of Nations palace at Geneva.

Four Persons Killed in Steamship Crash

Brutal

(By Pacific & Atlantic)
A childish desire to play as other children do, in opposition to the wishes of her foster parents, Charlotte Kral, Chicago girl, was pinioned hand and foot in dark closet in this manner, she told police.

Like Father, Like Son

(By Pacific & Atlantic)
Steve Donoghue, noted American jockey, and son, Patrick, who recently made his bow as jockey, riding in the same race with his dad at Salisbury, England. Here they are shown in the paddock just before they mounted.

Kiddies Greet World Flyers

(By Pacific & Atlantic)
These children, members of the American colony in Paris, were among the first to spy the American world flyers as they neared the landing field in Paris.

(Copyright 1924; Pacific & Atlantic Photos, Inc.)